

Stay in the plan

Here's how we can keep helping you reach your goals

Thank you for trusting us with your retirement savings. Did you know that as your career and life change, you can keep your assets in the Electrical Workers Local Union 159 Retirement Plan and take advantage of the personalized service and resources we offer?¹

Receive the same personalized service

You still have access to Customer Care Center representatives who can provide you with the ongoing support and education you need.

Keep up with your complete financial picture

Continue to use the same plan website to view your estimated monthly retirement income and take advantage of all the online educational material and interactive calculators. Link all your financial accounts so you can review your complete financial picture in one place.

Potentially pay lower fees

You participate along with many other people in this plan, which may mean paying less in fees.

Consider all your options and their features and fees before moving money between accounts.
